Editor's Note

The Eastern University Journal is a half-yearly refereed journal published twice a year, in January and in July. The Journal is meant to promote research and scholarly pursuits among the faculty of Eastern University in particular, and those of other Universities as well. Articles in the fields of Humanities, Business Administration, Social Sciences, Law, Engineering and Information Technology are preferred. Articles must be in English and should not normally exceed 10,000 words. Book reviews are also considered for publication. However, they should be within 1500 words, although in exceptional case(s) the word limit in both the cases may vary. A book review must accompany two copies of the book reviewed.

An article should be research-based and should demonstrate the author's own analysis and judgment. It should be original and not published before. Every article should with an abstract of about 250 words.

All article submitted for publication in the journal should be printed, double-spaced on one side of A4 paper with ample margin(one inch and a quarter) on the right-hand side. They should be sent in duplicate together with a floppy in MS Word. Manuscripts not accepted for publication are not returned unless they are accompanied by stamped self-addressed envelopes. The author of a published article gets two copies of the journal and 5 off- prints of the article. The book reviewer gets one copy of the journal.

All footnotes should be numbered consecutively and the footnotes should be given at the bottom of the corresponding page.

Bibliographical reference(s) should follow the following format. In case of reference(s) from journal article(s), the name of the auther(s), with the last name first and then the first name and the middle initial and then year of publication, the title of the paper within inverted commas, the name of the journal in italics with the volume number, month and year, and finally, the page number(s).

Example: Bhaduri, P.D. and Goldsmith, A. D. (2005), "Growth and Equity in Developing Countries: A Reinterpretation of the Peruvian Experience" Dhaka University Journal of Business studies, Vol. XXVI, No 2, June 2005, p. 123.

In case of reference(s) from book(s) or monograph(s), the name of the author(s), with the last name first and then the first name and middle initial and then year of publication, the title of the book/ monograph in italics, name of the publisher and the place of the publication and finally, the page number(s).

Example: Kennedy, S. I. (2000), The Economic Thought of a Humanist, Chicago University Press, Chicago, pp. 32-32.

In case of reference(s) from conference or seminar papers the name of the author(s), with the last name first and then the first name and the middle initial and then year of publication, the title of the conference/ seminar paper within inverted commas, the title of the conference/ seminar in italics, the organizer, the place and date of the conference/ seminar and page number(s).

Example: Parvez, M (1999), " Human Rights and Ethnic Minorities in Bangladesh: an Overview", Paper presented at a seminar on Ethnic minorities and Developments organized by Institute of Applied Anthropology, Bangladesh at the Institute of Modern Languages, University of Dhaka, 22-23 July, 1999, p. 5.

Smith A. (1999) : Select committee report into social care in the community.
