Success of Law students in Public Service Examination

The students of Faculty of Law have made Eastern University proud again! Four students had appeared at the Public Service Examination (Judiciary) this year, out of which three have come out successfully adding another feather in the cap of Eastern University. The initial feather was added last year, when out of 13 students of the first batch of Law students, all qualified in the written and 12 had passed the Bar Council Examination successfully, having been enrolled as advocates. This indeed was a rare achievement for the students as no other private university can boast of such a success and credit is duly accorded to the students who worked hard to achieve this. From the faculty of Law and indeed from the Eastern University family we extend our heartiest congratulations to these students and wish them bright future in the public service arena. The successful students are: F.M.Shafayat Salam, G.M.Najmus Shahadat and Md. Abdullah-Al-Masum.
